TABLES OF ORGANIZATION, SERIES A, NOS. 4, 5, 6, 7 AND 8.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS

AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCES

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF STAFF

May, 1918.

1. Hereafter all property in the hands of combatant troops in service in Europe will be divided into classes as follows:

2. MOBILE EQUIPMENT is the equipment prescribed for use in troop movements, temporary billets, and open warfare. It is limited to the animals, vehicles, and articles of equipment prescribed in the Tables of Organization, the equipment and clothing worn on the person, and the articles carried in pack and on mount and transported in field, combat, and divisional trains.

3. The mobile equipment will be carried in all classes of service.

4. TRENCH EQUIPMENT is the equipment which, in addition to the mobile equipment, is prescribed for use in trench warfare.

5. The trench equipment prescribed is designed to meet the necessities growing out of trench warfare as it exists on the Western front.

6. The tables given herewith cover all property in the hands of combatant troops and include Quartermaster, Ordnance, Medical, Gas Service, Engineer and Signal property. This equipment manual modifies for European service the allowances specified as Equipment A, B and C, described in Par. 319, Compilation of Orders, War Department, 1881-1915, and all equipment in excess of the allowances specified in this manual will be turned in at once to the Salvage Service, S. O. S.

7. The trench equipment does not accompany the troops in troop movements. The necessary stocks of equipment and supplies of this class are maintained in the dumps, and articles are issued out to the troops occupying the trenches in accordance with necessities as they arise. When an organization is relieved from the trenches it will turn over the trench equipment in the sector or part of a sector occupied by it to the organization relieving it.

8. This manual modifies existing tables of allowance and equipment manuals only in so far as is considered necessary to meet conditions of service in Europe. Due to the fact that different types of equipment are being issued to our troops, and that other changes are to take place in the future, the names of articles and figures given herein will not be strictly applicable in all cases. Where such differences arise, the provisions of the manual will be considered to apply in so far as practicable to the corresponding articles of other types.

9. The manual is intended as a guide for organization commanders in determining amounts of equipment and supplies to be kept on hand, and it is authority to Supply Officers for issues in accordance with its provisions. IT IS NOT INTENDED TO REGULATE OR LIMIT IN ANY WAY CALLS FOR SUPPLIES NECESSARY TO THE EFFICIENT CONDUCT OF OPERATIONS. NOR TO INTERFERE WITH THE DISTRIBUTION OF SUCH SUPPLIES AS ARE DICTATED BY THESE CONSIDERATIONS.

10. Errors in this manual should be brought promptly to the attention of General Headquarters A. E. F., G-1.

BY COMMAND OF GENERAL PERSHING:

JAMES W. McANDREW,
Chief of Staff.

OFFICIAL:
ROBERT C. DAVIS,
Adjutant General.
